I think it best on the whole to keep the finances of our meetings wholly separate from the Jerry Rescue Celebration. I shall therefore issue tickets for the meeting of the Anti Slavery Society - 25 cents for the whole course of two days 12½ cents for each separate meeting.

Wm L Garrison is giving us trouble again this year. He has thrust himself in, installed the doings of others - hatched up a committee - and issued a call. I hope we shall be able to get along without any open rupture - but he is an officious, troublesome fellow. Please send the accompanying notes to their address - Yours affectionately at Government of our country will descend and rest upon those who do its bidding & succumb to its demands, may darken the horizon, and pervert the judgment of the Jury, packed as it undoubtedly will be. This is more likely to be done — unless the sentiment of the community round about is healthy — lofty — come then you, Phillips, Parker, Stone, Holley, Burleigh et al come geniuses — come and help us tell the people, and the Government, and the ramrods of the Government, that it is folly to enact unrighteous acts into a law — and tyranny to enforce such a law —

Samuel J. May.

Let me know that you and they will be here — and I will announce it in all the papers far and near.

the meeting may be a failure and take money out of our treasury. But the gain or the loss of money is not the principal thing. Much needs to be done to keep up the tone of anti slavery sentiment and feeling in this community by carrying it higher. I would that a stone or word could be uttered here than ever has been. I would that a rope or cord should be struck in the hearts of this people.

The Jerry Rescuers are again to be tried, next month, at Canandaigua. The judge cannot behave worse than he did at Albany. He will undoubtedly do all in his power to procure a conviction. I think he will fail and yet the conviction is that the favor of the Gener-

Dear Garrison.

I have engaged Metropolitan Hall for the American Anti Slavery Society on the 29th & 30th of September. It is a splendid room, 120 feet long, 70 ft wide and will accommodate two thousand persons. We shall have to pay for it $25 per day. But if you and Phillips, and Mrs. Parker and Lucy Stone and Rhodes Burleigh, and Sallie Holley will attend the meeting, the hall will be filled we shall easily raise the means to pay for the use of the premises, all the expenses of the agency, and put some thing handsome into the treasury besides. But if you do not come I must if not all of you
